Holland Bank Robbery Solved After 4 Years

LOCAL BANK DID NOT LOSE A
PENNY IN CASH ON BONDS
ONLY LOSS WAS DOOR
GLASS

Warrants issued in Grand Haven Wednesday charged Edward Benz, 41; James L. Ripley, 37; Lee Turner, 40, and Charles J. Fitzgerald, 62, with the $75,000 robbery of the Holland First State bank on September 29, 1932.

Fitzgerald is held in St. Paul, Minn., in connection with a kidnapping case. Benz is serving a sentence in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., for robbing a Vermont national bank. Ripley and Turner are sought. A detainer was issued for Fitzgerald for use in the event he should be acquitted in St. Paul, and officers said circulars would be sent to all police departments asking that Ripley and Turner be arrested.

There was still another man known as Big Homer Wilson but he is dead and a sixth man is known to the police.

The warrants are the first issued in connection with the Holland bank robbery, although Benz is charged with participation in the robbery of the Peoples savings bank in Grand Haven on Aug. 18, 1933.

This information comes from Philip F. Hutson, Detective Sergeant of the State Police and Sheriff Benj. H. Rosen of Ottawa County who in a communication sent to the News stated that they are ready to say that they have the First State Bank robbery of 4 years ago solved.

The bank at that time was fully insured against robbery as it is today. All the money was returned; the bonds were also found and returned and the only damage to the bank was a hole in the front door window made when the robbers blazed away at Chief of Police Liveness who was wounded at the time, and one of the balls deflected and made a round hole in the window of the door. This is being kept as a souvenir.

When the warrants are obtained, complaints will be made before Attorney Dan F. Pagelson, circuit court commissioner at Grand Haven. It is understood this was done today.

A crippled children's Seas campaign program was presented yesterday afternoon in the Christian High School by the orthopedic room of Washington school. Principal J. Swets was chairman. The campaign program was explained by Richard Marlink and it featured dialogues, music and two short plays.

A three act comedy, where Johnny Grows Up" centering about the affairs of a certain poor family and the son Johnny will be presented by the senior class of the Christian High school on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, May 13 and 14, at 7:45 o'clock.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk's office: Edward Postma, 23, Blenden Twp., and Nella Van Den Bosch, 20, Olive Twp., and Peter Anthony Nagelkirk, 23, R. R. No. 1, Zeeland and Julia Rose Overbeek, 21, Holland.

Tuesday afternoon, May 12, mothers of the various Parent-Teachers associations of the grade-schools of the city will meet in the five grade schools for a Dutch costume exchange. This meeting is expected to solve the problems of many women whose children have outgrown their festival costumes. A committee has been appointed in each school.

Tulip Notes

"Daisies won't tell," maybe, but Ethel-Tulips are Telling.

John Van Bragt, the park commissioner, has planted small shrubs at the ends of each flower bed over the entire length of Washington blvd. It gives a finishing touch to the tulip beds which form a bright light in the tulip lanes.

Copies of the detailed Tulip Time program of the event are available for local residents and any person calling in the city. The Chamber of Commerce, located on the third floor of the Warm Friend Tavern, is the place where they can be secured. The office is open from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily except Sunday. There should be no time lost in securing copies by Holland folk. The scheduled events should be familiarized, it was advised. Ottawa and Allegan county residents are also included in this invitation.

Miss Dorothy De Haven who is at the Dutch Market Place to do silhouettes of visitors is a protégé of Cora Blais Taylor, local artist. Miss De Haven will exhibit pastel portraits of exceptional merit which should prove of interest to art students and teachers alike. Tulip Time officials are stressing the educational value of the Festival and insist that where ever possible various phases of culture shall be represented.

Jack Bos, Rein Vischer, Kelly Trapp and Jerry Houting, listed as the Tulip City quartette, are singing at the Dutch Market Place each evening of the Festival except Sundays. Their voices are adequate in volume for the large area in the Armory and they render the boisterous street songs of the Dutch in the proper spirit.

"The Rail" magazine, issued by the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R. and the Pere Marquette R. R., contains a page for the Tulip Festival with pictures of the street scrubbing and parades. "The Rail" is found in every station and on every train of the two systems and is sent to every shipper as well as the employees of both roads. There is nothing that has advertised Holland as thoroughly as this annual flower event. However, some will still be so blind that they cannot see it.

We expect the broken arm on the windmill in the park by that name will be set by Dr. Harrison, assistant to Dr. "Vaudie" Vandenberg. The snow, the wind or bad boys amputated it this winter. It is only hoped that the limb may not be paralyzed by this time and that Mr. Windmill will be able to turn it about. Dr. Van Bragt may have to be called in for consultation.

Mayor Bosch and the aldermen still have their "staadraad" costumes of last year. "Nick's" are packed away in moth balls. We suggest a municipal museum. Here we have a good start—then we have the milk ordinance, the dog ordinance, that PWA paint under the stairs, etc., etc.

The Grand Rapids Press has had many public pulse articles on proper and improper customs with plenty of counter replies. For instance, Mayor Geerlings last year was clothed in a Dutch fisherman costume and the Press pulsed said that did not uphold the dignity of the Holland mayor. The truth is when Henry doved, a "fisher" of men and women of voting age. Now that he has become a real mayor he can discard his provincial fisherman's outfit and will appear as a "burgemeester" from the Netherlands with a costume patterned from a "Dutch Master" cigar label. Pete Stuyvesant of New Amsterdam were one like that when New York was not yet, but the only difference will be that Henry will have two legs protruding through the knee breeches. The plumb outfit, plumed hat with plenty of brim and buckled shoes are all being prepared for his appearance surrounded by the "staad's raad."

City Inspector Changed Again For This Year

MAYOR ELECT GEERLINGS
PICTURE TAKES THE PLACE
OF THAT OF EX-MAYOR
BOSCH BACK OF THE ROSTRUM

Mrs. Boter Retires From Hospital
Board; Vance Mape Elected.

One noticeable feature to the aldermen and the small audience at the annual meeting on Monday, was the change of pictures, the place of honor being given to Mayor-elect Henry Geerlings, his picture supplanting that of ex-Mayor Bosch.

Back of the Mayor's chair on the rostrum are always placed the pictures of the presiding Mayor and the presiding president of the United States. A few weeks ago it was Mayor Bosch and President Roosevelt; today it is Mayor Geerlings and Mr. Roosevelt.

For many years the pictures of Pres. Harding, Pres. Wilson, Pres. Coolidge, Pres. Hoover and Pres. Roosevelt were the ones to occupy the chosen place together with the picture of the Mayor during their terms of office.

Now Mayor Bosch's picture occupies a place in the gallery of all ex-mayors. These pictures surround the entire council room, from Isaac Cappon, the first mayor, to Henry Geerlings, the last mayor, and of all these mayors Mr. Bosch served the greatest length of time.

Monday night was appointment night and the passing of the salary ordinance took place. This is an annual event and no other business is done but to make appointments. Mrs. Dick Boter withdrew from the hospital board for the reason that the family is now living outside of the city of Holland on Macawda Drive. She has been an able member of that board and took a deep interest in hospital work. The aldermen were reluctant in making a change, but her leaving the city undoubtedly made this imperative.

A very able man was voted in her place, namely Vance Mape of the West Michigan Furniture Co. The only other noticeable contest of any importance was that for the office of city inspector. There was formerly a regular salary of over $1300 for that work but it seems that today the prospective inspectors set their own salary and bid for the job.

Since Tony Doezman, in a very courteous letter resigned the position, it was thought that the "stock" of Henry Bosch, inspector for many years, had "gone up," in fact he had five votes on the first ballot.

Former alderman and welfare director, Ben Wiersma, however, showed his intention of not only doing the inspector's service but also doing the work of contact man for the welfare department. It seemed like a big service for the price of $700.

On the second ballot Mr. Wiersma received the majority of the votes cast, the rest going to other candidates with Bosch in the lead, but he did not have enough to overcome the majority of Mr. Wiersma.

The salary ordinance which had been gone over before, passed although alderman Kalkman wanted to give a raise of 10% to every city employee. This matter had been gone over before. It was decided at a previous meeting of the common council and it appears that Kalkman was out of order in presenting his motion. Last year the City employees all received a raise. There were a great many appointments made and these will be found below in official form as occupied by Oscar Peterson, city clerk.

The salary ordinance will also be found below.

CHEST CLINIC TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Dr. Bartlett of Muskegon will be in Holland on Tuesday, May 12, to take charge of the chest clinic which is held in the old hospital annex.

NO CHANGE IN CARLEY
AMUSEMENT COMPANY

Mr. Walter S. Butterfield who died April 20 as the News stated before, had many theatre interests in lower Michigan, in fact his play houses were in nearly every city. He was also allied with the Carley Amusement Company in which Henry Carley of Holland is the moving spirit.

In this company are the Colonial and Holland theatres in this city and also theatres in South Haven and in Allegan.

In a letter from those interested it is gratifying to hear that the management of the local theatres will continue to be the same, namely in the hands of Henry Carley, a man who has made a great many friends in this city.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The big Haymarket riot planned by anarchists, occurred 50 years ago. During a parade seven policemen were killed by a bomb thrown in Haymarket square. The News will give more of this riot since the grand jury had just placed indictments against seven of them.

Ex-mayor Rokus Kanter's building a field stone fence around his property on East Main street. Note: The old home is still there just east of the Holland theatre. The stone fence, too, is still there, extending almost to fire station No. 2. The home far back in the lot was formerly the Kanter's horse lot in those days. The family, wealthy in those days, had a beautiful "turn out." The big house had a balcony extending across the walk. An ordinance many years later did not allow projections out from buildings and two-thirds of the balcony was amputated, as it now appears. The ordinance was especially directed at sidewalk length signs, considered fire hazards. The rooms now occupied by Gerrit Buis furniture store served as station house No. 2 until the first city hall was built directly east—where at one time served as fire station council rooms and city library. Horse smell drove the "city fathers" to the Vander Veen building on West 8th street and 25 years ago the new city hall was dedicated.

Attorney Arend Vischer, the efficient secretary of the Holland Fair, is so busy now days that he was obliged to appoint an assistant last Saturday. It was a boy and weighs 16 ounces to the pound. Note: The item does not say how many pounds of 16 ounces.

Otto Breyman has the foundation for his new building laid at the corner of Main and Market street. He intends building next season. Note: E. F. Sutton, father of Walter Sutton, built directly west at the same time. These two buildings are now occupied by the McCollan store. Mr. Breyman conducted a jewelry store there for years. He also was agent for the American Express Co. Later it became Con De Pree's drug store and still later John Vaupell's drug store.

Charles Odell will hereafter patrol our streets as night watchman. The merchants and professional men have contributed enough money to pay for this night work in order to protect their property at night. The city has not yet seen fit to pay for more than one marshal during the day and he is Ed Vaupell.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Mrs. Lucy A. Wise, 177 College ave., is the proud owner of a bedspread spun and woven by her great-great-aunt and which as near as can be figured is 118 years old. She received the relic from Melissa A. Burns of Tipton, Mich. The spread is white and blue and is remarkably well preserved. Note: If the spread is still in existence, of which there is little doubt, it will be 143 years old today.

Con De Pree, manager of the De Pree Chemical Co., has awarded the contract of a $10,000 residence on West 12th street to Grand Rapids parties. The Diekema homestead is directly across the street. Note: The home is now owned and occupied by Harold McLean.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schoon 54 West 7th street when their estimable daughter Miss Anna Schoon was wedded to Mr. John Arendshorst son of Mr. and Mrs. Berend Arendshorst. Rev. Henry J. Veldman pastor at First Reformed church assisted by Rev. John Steketee, a brother-in-law performed the ceremony. The wedding march from Mendelssohn was played by Miss Jennie Kursten. After the wedding reception and a fine feast the happy bride and groom left for a honeymoon tour to western points and Chicago. Mr. Arendshorst is identified with the Holland Rusk Co. Mrs. Arendshorst is secretary of Mr. C. M. McLean of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co.

Note—Mr. and Mrs. John Arendshorst 25 years later will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary Monday, May 11 and plans have been made to hold open house for their friends from 3 to 5 p. m. and from 8 to 10 p. m. The News extends congratulations to this happy couple wed 25 years ago.

The death of George W. Brown.

REPRESENTATIVE BROWER BROADCASTS FROM LANSING

Rep. Edward Brower on May 5 at 1:45 p. m. sent a broadcast over the radio from Lansing, Michigan, extending greetings to the state and nation from Burghmeester Henry Geerlings as well as his own invitation as a legislator from Ottawa County, a position he has filled with credit.

He stated that the big Tulip Festival would open at 10 o'clock Saturday morning May 16 with the pealing of the chimes of the city as well as many bells augmenting the chimes.

In his 15 minute talk he gave a review of the entire program which is now ready for the Holland public and those living in this vicinity at the Chamber of Commerce, office in Warm Friend Tavern.

The Volks parade, the band music and parade, the pageant at Riverview Park which will be a great spectacle, the famous puppets of the Chicago Century of Progress who have created Dutch marionettes, a real highlight of the Tulip Festival will be shown at the Masonic Temple, Sipp Houtman's Dutch market in the Holland Armory and the hundreds of other features that make up this colorful celebration that in years gone by has attracted millions to this city, were all mentioned by Rep. Brower in his broadcast.

The ten miles of Tulip lanes, the one million tulips en masse at the Nelis Farm on Lakewood Blvd., the artistic fashioning of tulip beds in Centennial Park and other parks are naturally the heart of the celebration, but through it all are interwoven the colorful programs typifying the Holland across the sea.

Mr. Brower in his broadcast told all over the air and it constituted another means of publicity which has been so liberally given through magazine and press as well over the air.

The body will lie in state tomorrow morning from 7 to 9 o'clock in the Nibelink-Notier funeral chapel.

DECORATION DAY

Next Monday evening, May 11, a Memorial day meeting will be held to make arrangements to commemorate this annual and impressive event.

Mayor Geerlings in calling this meeting stated that despite the Tulip Festival activities that are occupying the time of nearly everyone we must not forget this important day which Holland holds sacred.

He stated that this city has always made a great deal of Decoration Day, honoring the dead heroes of all wars. "It is through them that the many years of prosperity have been made possible because they safeguarded with their lives, the country we hold dear."

There have been stressful periods since the founding of this country but that there has been unprecedented prosperity a far greater part of the time is everywhere evident," the Mayor said.

This meeting is called early, in advance of the coming festival so that there may be no interference with our Decoration Day preparations.

All those interested, and all should be, are urged to be at the G.A.R. Hall at 7:15 Monday night, May 11th.

Ben A. Mulder, Sec'y.

COUNCIL NOTES

Rev. Van Laar opened the council meeting with prayer.

All aldermen were present except Mr. De Cook who was unavoidable absent.

The only alderman to vote against the dog ordinance was "Casje" Kalkman. He did not say whether he hated or loved the dogs.

Alderman Peter Huizer informed the aldermen that a dog warden had to be appointed before the ordinance went into effect which will be in 20 days. There will be plenty applicants.

The street committee through alderman Bultman asked that the old "lizzie" be done away with and that a "Chevy" be substituted at a cost of $440 besides the trade-in value of the faithful old Ford. The council allowed the purchase to be made from the Wynn Pemberton Co.

With the dog ordinance comes a dog pound and a dog warden and many angry folk whose dogs kick over the traces.

Solomon had a great many wives, Holland has a great many dogs. Solomon had hanging gardens which if installed in Holland would surely abate the dog nuisance.

Requests of home owners residing on Lincoln Ave., south of 16th St. for construction of a sewer was referred to sewer committee and city engineer. Council approval the recommendation of the health board that Gerrit Kragt be retained as city scavenger at the same rate of pay.

Objection of K. Vandenberg, 165 Fairbanks Ave., to payment of annual sanitary sewer fee of $24 was referred to the board of public works with power to act. Mr. Vandenberg contended that the fee is excessive. Alderman John Vogelzang reported on progress of the sanitary sewer campaign stating that five had complied and six had signified intentions of connecting with the city sewers. Six residents living west of Fairbanks Ave. request the construction of a main sewer.

The Common Council allowed Ben Wiersma, the new City Inspector, the sum of $200 to pay him for his duties as contact man for the welfare department, a position held formerly by Simon Kleyn. This will give Mr. Wiersma $900 a year instead of $700 a year to which two pastors in the city of Holland objected.

Case Kalkman was given a license to lay concrete in the city.

Art Drinkwater of the building committee stated that the clinic building near the old hospital on Central Avenue was being repaired and the lawn beautified.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars asked that they be given the privilege of selling poppies on the 23rd day of May with the proceeds going to a very benevolent cause—the support of children of departed and disabled veterans. That was granted unanimously. The American Legion also made the same request thru the Chamber of Commerce and were granted the privilege.

Building permits in the amount of $7,583 were approved by council, subject to signatures of fire chief and building inspector. Protest by a group of home owners residing on W. 13th St. to remodeling of a house located at 115 E. 13th St. into a duplex was referred to the building committee.

Alderman George Damsen Lion's Club, namely, that all blind men be presented with white canes and the raising of these canes when they were crossing the street would give the blind person the right of way.

An ordinance is coming up in the City of Detroit, embracing this clause and Holland may also take up this matter. It is a nationwide movement which legislators everywhere will soon take up.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vos 36 W. 17th St. left this morning for Hooper and Orange City, Iowa. Miss Cora Vos of Grand Rapids will accompany them. They will visit relatives and friends.

Eugene W. Roelofs and Miss Synn Westra are among the 446 named for the winter scholastic honor roll at Michigan State College, East Lansing. They have maintained at least a "B" average for to successive terms.

Judge Miles granted a judgment of $763.73 and costs of $23.70 to John Van Patten, Holland, against William Hop, Holland. The calendar for the May term of Ottawa county circuit court was arranged Monday afternoon by the judge.

Dominies Do Not Believe In Low Wages

DOG ORDINANCE IS MODIFIED
BY THE COMMON COUNCIL

Charlie Van Zylzen Wishes to sell to city Restlawn Memorial Park

The long delayed dog ordinance, somewhat modified which however, gives cats a clear bill which to the editor is untenable because of the bird destruction, passed the council. There was a change of only one paragraph from the one passed in March when it was revised so that dogs that can be reasonably controlled by the owners will not have to be put on leashes. For all others, leashes must be provided.

It must be understood, however, that dogs are not to enter gardens and destroy things right and left. "The owner must be able to control the dog."

One lady dog lover stated during this debate that she could put a T-bone steak on a plate and no matter how hungry the dog might be, he wouldn't touch the steak until she indicated that the "doggie" might go to it. That is dog control.

The section, revised, follows in full below, and the complete ordinance will also be found in this issue on page 3 of section 1.

329. Sec. 1. It shall not be lawful for any domestic animal (excepting cats), geese, chickens, or any other fowl to run or to be at large in the public streets, lanes, alleys, vacant lots, or other open or public place or places; not upon any private premises other than the premises of the owner of such domestic animal or fowl, without the consent of the owner or occupant of such private premises. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for any domestic animal to be led about outside the premises of the owner thereof on a suitable leash, in the immediate control of a competent person; and provided, further, that it shall be lawful for any person owning or harboring any dog to allow the same to go beyond the premises of such person and not within the limits of any public park while under the reasonable control of some person.

Rather a surprise came when Rev. L. Van Laar, pastor of Prospect Park Christian Reformed Church, came before the council with a petition, signed by himself and Rev. Henry D. Ter Kuurst, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, stating that he thought the common council last Monday had erred in giving the City Inspectorship to Benj. Wiersma for $700, besides having him act as a contact man for the welfare job thrown in as good measure.

Rev. Van Laar stated that the inspector has to do with our food supply and he felt that there would be a tendency with such a low salary to do a haphazard job. He stated that anyone knowing that a man cannot live decently, do his work properly and furnish his traveling expenses out of $700 and while the council has a legal right they have no moral right to do such things. He said that he was casting no reflection on the ability of Mr. Ben Wiersma but that next year some man might come along and take the job for $600 or $500.

He said, "We are dealing with public health and it takes a certain amount of time to do this work. Therefore, the salary should be made high enough so that the man in charge would be anxious to do the work and hold his job."

This thought was concurred in by Rev. Ter Kuurst who signed the petition which embraced many of these thoughts.

Mayor Geerlings stated that the Board of Health had approved of Mr. Wiersma's doing the work.

Alderman Vogelzang stated that Mr. Doezman had told him that the salary of $700 was ample.

Rev. Van Laar replied that Mr. Doezman could never have lived on this wage were it not for his other means of livelihood. He continued, "No man can live on $700 a year and out of this same salary pay the running expense of a car and other expenses incident to the job. I am rather ashamed that the city should pay such a pittance for so important a position."

The News will say as far as Mr. Wiersma is concerned, that he has been an able alderman and a very efficient welfare man. We hope the council will recognize that fact and eventually give him more remuneration

HAMILTON

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Smit will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at their home, south of town next week Wednesday, May 13th. They will have open house during the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Smit were united in marriage by ex-burgomaster Johannes Pas of St. Anna, Paroske, Vriesland, Netherlands. Coming to this country in 1899, they resided at Rochester, N. Y. for one year. In 1900 they moved to Zeeland where they resided for seven years. From there they moved to Hamilton and have made their home in this vicinity for the past 28 years.

It was also decided to place signs on M40 at the village limits and busy street intersections, Wm. Ten Brink and Bernard Voorhorst appointed as committee.

There is great need that something definite be done to stop speeding and careless driving thru town, if accidents are to be prevented during the busy summer months. Traffic thru town is heavy and the beautiful wide street and smooth pavement seems to be a temptation to drivers to step on the gas. Not a few cars pass thru at a speed of 40 miles or more per hour. Village limits, speed and stop signs will be placed and authorities are determined that these signs shall be respected. Let us all cooperate.

AN ORDINANCE

No. 382 Chapter No. 45

An ordinance to amend Chapter No. 45 of the General Ordinances of the city of Holland, being an ordinance relative to the Running at Large within the Limits of the City of Holland, of Horses, Sheep, Swine, Mules, Goats, Cattle and Beasts, Geese and other Fowls, and the appointment and duties of a Poundmaster.

The City of Holland Ordains:

Chapter No. 45, of the General Ordinances of the City of Holland, being an Ordinance relative to the running at large within the limits of the City of Holland, of Horses, Sheep, Mules, Goats, Cattle and Beasts, Geese and other Fowls, is hereby amended to read as follows:

329. Sec. 1. It shall not be lawful for any domestic animal (excepting cats), geese, chickens, or any other fowl to run or be at large in the public streets, lanes, alleys, vacant lots, or other open or public place or places; nor upon any private premises other than the premises of the owner of such domestic animal or fowl, without the consent of the owner or occupant of such private premises. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for any domestic animal to be led about outside the premises of the owner thereof on a suitable leash, in the immediate control of a competent person; and provided further, that it shall be lawful for any person owning or harboring any dog to allow the same to go beyond the premises of such person and not within the limits of any public park while under the reasonable control of some person.

330. Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Common Council of said City to appoint some suitable person as Poundmaster of the City of Holland who shall serve during the pleasure of the Common Council and receive a compensation for his services to be fixed by the Common Council.

331. Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Poundmaster, and members of the Police Force of the City, to take into custody, detain and impound in the public pound, established by the common council, any animal or fowl, mentioned in the first section of this ordinance, and which may be found at large in said City or away from the premises of the owner thereof contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.

332. Sec. 4. When any dog or other animal or any fowl, mentioned in Section One of this ordinance shall have been impounded, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance it shall be the duty of the poundmaster to shelter, care for, feed and water the same until the same shall have been released or otherwise disposed of as in this ordinance provided. No dog or other domestic animal shall be released from the pound, unless the owner or person entitled to demand the same shall pay to the poundmaster the sum of $1.00 per day for the care, custody and feeding of such dog or other animal, on the part of said poundmaster, and furthermore, in the case of dogs, procure a license for said dog in the manner required by the State Law at the time in force and affect, in the event that such dog shall not have already been duly licensed. No geese or other fowls impounded shall be released until the owner or person entitled to the possession of the same shall have paid $5.00 per day for each goose or other fowl taken up and impounded.

333. Sec. 5. Except in the case of dogs, if the owner or person entitled to the possession of any animal, or any fowl, shall not claim the same within forty eight hours from the time of taking the same into custody, and shall not have paid the charges and taken away such animal or fowl, the same shall be sold by the poundmaster, at the pound, by a public outcry, to the highest bidder, at the hour of noon next succeeding the said forty eight hours. All dogs not claimed and released within forty eight hours after being impounded shall be destroyed, by the poundmaster, or if the animal is worthy and valuable, shall be offered for sale by the poundmaster in the manner herein provided for other impounded animals, and shall thereafter be destroyed if not purchased by some person at such public sale. Provided, that dogs impounded having been exposed to rabies, or any dog that has attacked any person, shall remain impounded until such time and under such conditions as shall be required by the Board of Health of said City, and it shall be the duty of the poundmaster to notify said Board of Health when he has any good reason to believe that he has any such dog in his possession. All fees collected by the Poundmaster under the provisions of this ordinance shall be paid to the City Treasurer within ten days after the collection of same and shall be credited to the general fund, and all operating expenses of said Pound, including the compensation of the Poundmaster, shall be paid out of the General fund, in the manner provided for the payment of the general expenses of said City.

334. Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Common Council of the City, upon satisfactory proof of the ownership of any property impounded and sold under the provisions of this ordinance for a price in excess of the sum of five dollars to direct the City Treasurer to pay to such owner, a sum equal to the sale price of such property, less the sum of five dollars which is hereby determined to be the reasonable expense of each such sale. It shall be the duty of the Poundmaster forthwith after each sale to deposit the proceeds thereof with the City Treasurer, taking his official receipt therefor.

335. Sec. 7. The said Poundmaster shall keep a book, in which he shall enter as minutely as possible, a full description of any dog or other animal, or fowl, impounded under the provisions of this ordinance, the locality from which it was taken, the name of the owner when known, or when ascertained, and the date and hour when impounded; keeping in said book an accurate account and record of all his doings and proceedings in the premises. At the end of each calendar month it shall be the duty of said Poundmaster to make a full report to the Common Council of said City, of all his doings and of all moneys by him collected under the provisions of this ordinance, and the receipts taken from the City Treasurer shall accompany such report.

336. Sec. 8. No person shall hinder, obstruct or delay the Poundmaster or any member of the Police Department or any other person engaged in lawfully taking into custody any dog, other animal or any fowl found running at large or being possessed or harbored by any person contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.

337. Sec. 9. It shall be lawful for any person to drive to the pound, and deliver into the possession of the Poundmaster, or put into the Pound, any dog or other animal or any fowl found running at large or away from the premises of the owner or person having the same in possession within the limits of the City of Holland, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance.

337. (a) Sec. 10. No person shall harbor or keep any dog which by loud or frequent or habitual barking, yelping or howling shall cause serious annoyance to the neighborhood or to people passing to and fro upon the streets. No person shall own or harbor any vicious dog, or any dog that has been bitten by any animal known to have been afflicted with rabies, or which shall have bitten any person. Any person who shall have in his or her possession a dog which has contracted rabies or which has been subjected to the same or as to which there is reasonable grounds to believe that the same has been infected with rabies, or which shall have bitten any person, shall upon demand of the Chief of Police or of the Board of Health or of the Health Officer of said City, produce and surrender upon such dog to the Police Department or to the Board of Health or to the Health Officer of said City, to be held for observation and treatment as herein provided. Any person allowing any dog habitually to remain and be lodged within his or her house, store, building, enclosure or premises, shall be considered as harboring or keeping the same within the meaning of this ordinance. It shall be the duty of every person owning or harboring a dog which has been attacked or bitten by another dog or other animal showing the symptoms of rabies immediately to notify the Police Department or the Health Officer of said City that they have such a dog in their possession, and whenever a dog is brought to the pound a second time for having bitten a person the Police Department shall cause such dog to be destroyed as a vicious dog after having been

BEFORE and AFTER by Dabert

Now, Mrs. Gandy, you take this pail of hot water and do the wood-work in the living room—Sarah, you get all the blankets and put them to soak—

Yes—Mum

BEFORE Land, No, child—we are hardly started—wait—waiting for this water to heat would try the patience of Job.

Well, Mother, why don't we get a GAS Water Heater? Norma Blake's folks have one—and they never have to wait for any hot water—they always get plenty right in the faucets.

There, Mrs. Gandy, just wash down the woodwork in the halls and well be all through—That GAS Water Heater has certainly made house cleaning a lot easier for us this time.

It sure has, Mum

AFTER Yes, Helen, you may go out now. But if we didn't have that GAS Water Heater, I don't know when you'd get out. It surely has made life a lot more livable and pleasant for every member of the family.

Yes, and Dad says it hasn't cost us any more to heat water this easy way than it did when we used the furnace coils in winter or heated it on the range in the summer.

Mother, can I go out now?

The operating cost is surprisingly low when you consider the troublefree service provided each day. Phone for installation costs. No obligation.

Tulip Time Next Big
Affair in West
Michigan

(Tourist and Resort Bureau)
From an idea born in a school teacher's paper on "Civic Beauty," Tulip Time in Holland has grown to a national institution which will attract 500,000 people when it is celebrated this year, May 16 to 24.

Besides the miles of tulip bordered drives and the millions of tulips in bloom at the Nelis Tulip Farm the program will include a pageant by the students of Hope college, daily performances by Dutch marionettes, strolling musicians, folk dancing and singing. The program will open with the scrubbing of the street by the people of Holland in Dutch costume, which will be broadcast over stations of the Mutual network.

One of the outstanding ceremonies of the week will be the presentation of knighthood as a member of the Order of Orange Nassau to Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college. Dr. Wichers was knighted by Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands for his part in the preservation of the old Dutch customs observed in the celebration of Tulip Time.

Roads leading to Holland have been repaired by the highway department preparatory to the heavy traffic which will come with Tulip Time.

The Lyons Company tug of Saugatuck recently took the City of St. Joseph to Manitowoc, Wis., to be dismantled. She is to be made into a stone barge. The tug left for Benton Harbor to take the steamer City of Benton Harbor to Manitowoc.

OTTAWA IS ONLY COUNTY IN
MICH. TO RECEIVE MENTION FOR HEALTH

Ottawa county is the only county in Michigan to receive mention in the health conservation contest throughout the country, according to a report received today by the Ottawa County Health unit. This county received honorable mention in the northeastern division, one of six geographical divisions of the entire country, made in the contest. The first prize in this division went to Westchester county, N. Y.

The contest has as its purpose the elimination of premature deaths and the reduction of economic losses due to unnecessary illness. It seeks to accomplish this by enlisting the active interest of business men in public health and by encouraging a more unified and coordinated program on the part of the several groups engaged in the protection and promotion of public health.

The contest was limited to counties and districts which have a full-time health service and 160 counties enrolled, representing 30 out of the 33 states in the Union which have eligible units. The population included is between eight and nine million.

The new health project was made possible through a generous gift from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek. This is the second year the contest has been conducted. It was started to give the more rural areas an opportunity to compete with one another in the same way that cities have been doing since 1929.

Each participating rural unit was visited by a representative of the American Public Health association. A schedule was submitted and these were later scored by a committee selected from the county. The members included Charles E. Misner, chairman; Wm. Stribley, Dr. C. E. Long, Dr. W. B. Bloemendaal, Dr. J. Staughton, Mrs. B. P. Sherwood from this city; Dr. William Westrate, Dr. M. J. Cook, Gerrit G. Groenewoud, Mrs. C. J. McLean, Miss Alma Koertje, William Connelly and Miss Beatrice Kinney, Holland; Malcolm Rogers, John Kole, Zeeland; members of the health unit staff, Dr. Ralph Ten Have, Miss Madge Bresnahan, Miss Martha Allen, N. A. Rosenberg.

The information was collected by the staff members and the committee reviewed the reports before they were sent to headquarters.

God wove a web of loveliness,
Of clouds and stars and birds,
But made not anything at all
So beautiful, as Mother's words.

They shine like every star,
And I am rich who learned from her,
How beautiful they are.

PAGEANT OF HOLLAND, CON-
TRIBUTION OF HOPE COLLEGE TO TULIP FESTIVAL

(Grand Rapids Press)

Hope college will present the Pageant of Holland, epic of the Dutch settlers who founded the little colony on Black lake 90 years ago, as its part of Michigan's centennial celebration. The pageant, which also will mark the 70th anniversary of Hope college, will be presented Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, May 16, 18 and 19, the opening week of Tulip Time.

A similar pageant was presented by the college in 1908 and again in 1928.

The senior class of the college is in charge and George Douma of Grand Rapids is general chairman. The pageant opens in the court of the Duke of Alva, Spanish ruler over the Dutch people, and depicts the oppression of the populace under him.

The scene next turns to the 19th century. A group under Dr. Van Raalte, tired of religious oppression, decide to escape to a new country. One of the group, who had visited the new world, induces the band to come to America where they arrive in Albany, N. Y.

From Albany the party moves to Detroit and from there a few members under Dr. Van Raalte, make their way to Holland, where it is decided to finally settle.

The scenes are interspersed with interesting anecdotes of the community's development, a special feature being the destruction of the town by fire in 1871 and as the final scene, the reconstruction of the community, its growth and the growth with it of Hope college.

Four hundred persons will participate and Hope college choruses will provide a musical background.

ZEELAND SCHOOL STUDIES
EARLY HISTORY

This week the Zeeland schools have inaugurated a week's study of Zeeland history in the eighth grade class in Social Science, under the direct supervision of Hilmer Dickman, instructor of history in this department.

The subject matter covered follows closely a pamphlet, "The Immigration and Early History of the People of Zeeland," written by Anna Kremer Keppel, one time resident of Zeeland and instructor of history in the Detroit schools. This book is being supplemented by lectures given by Willard C. Wichers, district supervisor of the Survey of Historical Records, and two members of his staff, Ben J. Van Eyck and P. T. Moersdyk.

Mr. Wichers is presenting to the class the value of a study of local and pioneer history. Mr. Van Eyck is giving the social, economic and spiritual background of the pioneers, and Mr. Moersdyk the early history of Zeeland. The week's work will close with a summary of the material presented given in essay form by the students.

MEETING

At a meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners, Henry Ketel, who begins his fifth year in office was chosen chairman of the board. Fred Kamferbeek who was elected commissioner at the March primaries, was formally welcomed at his first meeting with the group.

Chief Van Ry gave a report which said that policeman had received their guns and that two motorcycles had been received. The motorcycles cost $480 including trade-in of the old machine.

Discussion was held on whether to erect a traffic light at the intersection of 12th St. and River Ave., but it will be necessary to get the consent of the state highway department as the corner is on a state trunkline.

Application of Gerald Vander Beek for a position on the police force was ordered filed.

A program of painting and cleaning is to be carried out at the two fire engine houses at the suggestion of Fire Chief Cornelius Blom, Jr.

Officers James Spruit and Benjamin Kalkman will be assigned to motorcycle traffic duty during the summer. One officer will go on duty at 9 a.m. and work till 6 p.m. and the second will start at 12 o'clock noon and work till 10 p.m.

This arrangement assures two motorcycle officers on duty between the hours of 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Publicity For
Tulip Festival
Goes On Apace

NEWSPAPERS THROUGHOUT THE NATION DEVOTE MANY
CUTS AND MUCH READING
MATTER TO EVENT

Undoubtedly before the Tulip Festival dates arrive—May 16-24—the newspapers and the magazines of the nation will have devoted more free space to the coming event than during any previous year.

The Overseas Graphic for May devotes two full pages of cuts and reading matter. The Detroit Free Press, as is noticeable in the Holland City News, devoted a column, giving a resume of the coming program.

The News has received scores of requests from newspapers and individuals asking for programs and these have been turned over to Mr. Connelly of the Chamber of Commerce. There just arrived here a copy of the Evening Republican of Columbus, Indiana, and it seems that a gentleman by the name of Raymond H. Fehring of that city

TULIP FESTIVAL OPENING WILL BE BROADCAST

The opening events of the tulip festival will be broadcast from the Warm Friend Tavern here at 2:30, according to an announcement made today. The broadcast will be sponsored by the Holland Furnace company.

The program will include a narration of the street-scrubbing and parade which will mark the official opening of the festival and also some interesting sidelights on Dutch history and costumes.

The program will be broadcast over the Mutual Chain from WGN, WLW, WOR, and CKLW.

made a trip to Holland and called on the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Connelly loaded him up with Tulip Time matter which he took back to his home at Columbus.

He did not know at the time that he would soon be a resident of Holland. However, he was much impressed with what Mr. Connelly told him of the city. Since that time he has taken a position with the engineering department of the Holland Furnace Company and will move here with his family when school closes.

Anyway, Mr. Fehring has become so enthused about Holland and its Tulip Time features that he has sent the Evening Republican, his home town paper, the following article under the feature caption, "Have You Noticed?"

(By the Observer)

This morning the mail brought an enthusiastic letter from Raymond H. Fehring, who is in Holland, Mich., and who admits he has "really fallen for this town." The literature relative to the Holland Tulip festival, May 16th to 24th, is positively inspiring, and I like to be making reservations right now to see it. "Eight miles of tulip lanes"; "Dutch Market"; "Village Green"; "Dutch Mill Booms illuminated with giant floodlights" are some of the attractions of the Tulip festival, and one picture shows the revival of the old Dutch custom of scrubbing the street at the opening of Tulip time—the scrubbers are in Dutch costumes. Mr. Fehring's letter follows:

"To the Observer:—I've read in your column quite often of your love for flowers, so when I found out all about 'Tulip Time' I thought you might be interested. I'm enclosing a few pieces of literature about the festival and the town.

"If you've never been here, you're missing something; and if you have, I know you'll want to come back. Everyone is friendly, and the town itself is epic and span.

"About the festival—it's interesting to note that in size it ranks only below the Rose Bowl day in Pasadena and the Mardi Gras in New Orleans. You can hardly walk around here now without stepping on a tulip bulb, and one grower just outside of town has a million bulbs planted.

"I'm writing you early, because if you are planning to come, or know of anyone who is, it's wise to make your reservations now, since they have had as many as 60,000 visitors in this town of 15,000 in one day!

"And to you or to anyone else planning to visit Holland at any time, I extend an invitation to visit the furnace company's plant and office. The latter is the only building of its kind in the world and it is heated by seven large furnaces under one mammoth hood. The 'Welcome' sign is always out there, so don't miss it if you are in this region. It's an education in itself.

"I hope I haven't bored you with all this talk, but I've really fallen for this town and I think anyone else will who spends some time here. Are you coming?"

I assure Mr. Fehring that I'm far from "bored" by his enthusiasm; however, it does make me a bit miserable. I'd rather see a million tulips in bloom than most anything I can think of—and a hand-scrubbed street would come next! Thanks for the nice letter, and I hope some of us from Columbus can be with you during "Tulip Time."

Traveling Around America.

WHEN Spring comes Mexico City takes on all the glamour of her early days. Knights and veiled ladies promenade under the ancient alhambra trees, flower-filled gondolas glide round the lake which once knew Queen Carlotta's royal barge, Spanish love songs and the dolorous notes of guitars fill the air—the capital city turns out for the Spring Flower Tournament.

This year the festival will be held from the second to the sixth of May, and a lending added impetus to the fortnightly cruises to the Spanish Americas and Mexico City. During this time many novel spectacles are to be seen—a colorful battle of flowers, a coronation of the Queen in the presence of a glittering court, a parade of floats on the romantic Lake of Chapultepec giving glimpses of the costumes and customs which were the vogue in the days when Mexico City was the Venetian-like Tenochtitlan, and a night of elaborate fireworks and native dances. The evenings' entertainments are climaxed with a brilliant Grand Masquerade Ball presided over by the Queen and her court, and attended by Mexican government officials and other prominent people. Coinciding with this flower festival the season's best bull fight will take place, and the celebration of the Purification of the New Fire, in which Indian teams compete in a unique Torch Race from the top of the Sacred Hill of the Star to the National Stadium—an ancient Aztec rite which is today seldom observed.

The readers for the Pageant will be Mayo Hadden and John Olert for the masculine parts and Mildred Mulder and Jean Rottschaffer for the feminine roles. The leading characters are supported by a cast of 19 members in minor roles and 400 other costume characters.

Written by Three The Pageant was written and compiled by Florence Vis, Catherine Haig and Henry Kleinhekel under the supervision of George Douma who is the general chairman of the committee. "The Pageant of 1936" is a historical presentation depicting Dutch development from the cruel days of the Duke of Alva to the present time. The action is largely pantomimed, with a reader keeping patrons constantly informed of every fascinating stage in the thrilling story of these adventuresome, liberty-loving Dutch pioneers. An appropriate musical background is maintained to create the finest effect, in addition to modern stage lighting and elaborate costuming.

Pageant Has Three Parts The Pageant is written in three main parts: Part I. Scene, Netherlands. This part shows the cruel days under the Duke of Alva which causes many Dutch families to leave the Netherlands and come to the New World. Part II. Scene, The Dutch come to Michigan. In this part we see the struggles in the new land and the building up of the city of Holland. Civil war scenes are shown of the Dutch contingents with the depicting of the great fire of Holland. Part III. Scene, The Triumphant Dutch. Here we see the present day staged. Tulip time and the laying of the corner stone of the Memorial chapel are enacted in this final episode.

THIS MAN'S POLICE RECORD INCLUDES 32 ARRESTS SINCE 1914

Victor E. Barnes, arrested recently in Grand Haven and held on a disorderly charge, spent four days in the county jail and then went on his way, after Chief Lawrence DeWitt, formerly of Holland, was certain that he was not wanted in any part of the country. For this man has a record that astounded even the police, used to all types of characters.

Barnes has been listed on the federal bureau of investigation records since 1914, when he was arrested in Berkeley, Calif., under the name of James DeVine. Since that time he has been arrested 32 times for all kinds of crimes and has served in federal prison, state prisons and county jails.

A name apparently means little to the man as he has used any number of aliases including Thomas F. Morgan, Arthur J. Russell, Ira F. McMullin, Arthur John Russell, George Brown, John Ryan and thus on and on evidently using any name that came to mind as he has been arrested almost every year since the G-Men have had his record. He has served for impersonating a government officer, for being drunk and begging, as a con man, for false pretense, for larceny, lewdness, impersonating a federal officer, loitering. He has traveled from coast to coast and been picked up in the leading cities of the country.

He was spotted here asking for money at various homes, but the police were on his trail and he did not succeed in getting any. The man was fairly well dressed, had a pleasant personality and was not of the tramp type.

No estimate can be given as to the cost of such a person to the law enforcement agencies of this country for he has served over 15 years of his career since 1914 in and out of prisons and jails, a constant annoyance to officers from California to New York.

WHEN YOU know YOU PAID A BILL • CAN YOU PROVE IT?

You may distinctly remember paying a bill—but if its sender says you didn't, how are you to protect yourself from paying twice? The answer is simple—a checking account here removes any such danger. Besides being legal evidences of payment, cancelled checks relieve you of the necessity of asking for—and filing—receipted bills.

Many men and women, particular in their financial habits, have checking accounts here for this safety—as well as for the saving of time and trouble.

*Conservative IS A GOOD WORD

Being conservative does not mean being old-fashioned.

It means "to conserve"—to be careful when reaching out for something new, not to lose any part of what we have. It means that we think before we act, so as to act safely, not hastily.

There is nothing old-fashioned about that; it is just wise common-sense in taking good care of our depositors' money.

Geared to the Ground like a Cog Locomotive!

The track links form smooth, hard double rails. (With surfaces heat-treated to de' wear—and cores toughened to absorb shock!) The track shoes are the ties, providing big areas of ground contact to distribute the "Caterpillar" Tractor's weight and prevent skidding or sinking down. Each shoe has a wide grouser—the Twenty-Two, for example, keeps 18 grousers (9 on each track) gripping the soil and bracing its pull. . . The large long-lasting, heat-treated steel sprockets are the drivers—and their strong teeth keep in constant, positive mesh with the tracks. Flanged steel rollers (with drop-forged, heat-treated steel rims) carry the "Caterpillar" Tractor's weight on the rails—mightily little power is needed for this tractor to propel itself!

The heavy-duty engine teaming with "cog-railroad" traction gives the "Caterpillar" Tractor its tremendous pulling power. Yet unlike a cog locomotive, this tractor picks up and relays its track endlessly—pulls its big loads where you steer it, uphill or down, over sand, seed-bed, muck or snow!

We have an interesting booklet that describes the design and construction of "Caterpillar" tracks. Ask us for this booklet.

New Recipes for Your Cooky Jar

EVERY HOME should have a cooky crock filled to the brim with spicy tidbits. This gay stone jar is like a warm hearth—the whole family gathers about it with a mellow glow of anticipation, or steals upon it one by one to bask in its abundance. Small boys dash in from school and dive into the cooky jar with ravenous hands. And grown-up boys disappear into the pantry before bedtime and between meals, rattle the cooky jar lid, and emerge contentedly munching fat sugar cookies. But don't confine cookies to casual snacks alone. They add a spicy touch to desserts for everyday luncheons and dinners served with fruit, custards and ice cream. And they are indispensable at tea and parties. With cookies such all around favorites, you will need a ready supply and a wide variety on hand to meet your consumer demand. These grand recipes will soon become favorite fillers for your cooky jar:

Raisins and Nut Drop Cookies (makes 4 doz. cookies)—Cream ½ cup butter, add 1 cup sugar gradually and cream well. Add 2 well beaten eggs and beat until light and fluffy after addition of each. Sift 2½ cups all-purpose flour (sifted once before measuring) with 3 teaspoons baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt, and add to butter mixture alternately with 4 tablespoons milk. Add 1 cup raisins, floured, 1 cup nut meats, 1½ cups Rice Flakes and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 12 minutes.

Crisp Sugar Cookies—Cream ½ cup butter, add 1½ cups sugar gradually and cream well. Add 1 egg and beat until light and fluffy. Sift 3½ cups all-purpose flour (sifted once before measuring) with 4 teaspoons baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt and add to butter mixture alternately with ¼ cup milk, mixing well after the addition of each. If time permits, chill dough for an hour or so in coldest part of refrigerator, as it makes the dough easier to roll. Roll to ¼ inch in thickness and cut into desired shapes. Place on greased cookie sheet and sprinkle cookies with Rice Flakes and sugar mixture (recipe below). Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 8 to 10 minutes, or until browned lightly.

Rice Flakes and Sugar Mixture—Crush 1 cup Rice Flakes very finely with rolling pin, then combine with ¼ cup sugar. A few drops of vegetable coloring may be added to sugar to tint desired color.

Spice Peanut Butter Drop Cookies—Cream together ½ cup Peanut Butter and ½ cup brown sugar. Beat 2 eggs thoroughly and add ½ cup more brown sugar, and continue beating. Add egg mixture to the Peanut Butter mixture. Sift 2½ cups pastry flour (sifted once before measuring) with ¼ teaspoon ginger, ¼ teaspoon cloves, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Mix 1 cup raisins or chopped dates with the flour mixture to coat them thoroughly. Add these dry ingredients to the Peanut Butter mixture alternately with ½ cup milk. Add 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 2 tablespoons boiling water, and mix thoroughly. Drop by tablespoonfuls on a greased baking sheet and bake for 10 minutes in a moderate oven (350 to 375° F.). Do not place rack too low in the oven, as the cookies brown easily.

Mince Meat Fudge Squares—Cream ½ cup butter, add 1 cup sugar gradually, and cream together thoroughly. Add 2 eggs, one at a time, beating until fluffy after addition of each. Add ½ cup Mince Meat, ½ cup nut meats, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1½ ozs. bitter chocolate which has been melted over hot water. Sift ½ cup pastry flour (sifted once before measuring) with ¼ teaspoon salt and fold into batter mixture. Pour into a shallow greased pan 8"x12", the bottom of which is lined with waxed paper, and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 to 35 minutes. Turn out on waxed paper and cut while hot into small squares like fudge. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

CAREER OF KATE SMITH RADIO STAR

"When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain," the identifying theme of Kate Smith and her Swanee Music will usher in the fifth anniversary of radio's most popular songstress, May 4th. Coinciding with this event will be the celebration of Kate's birthday. Since the announcement that she was to be tendered a party on that night by the Washington, D. C., Unit of the A&P Tea Company, she has been deluged with letters from her thousands of listeners extending congratulations and good wishes. Her desk has been piled high with bundles of fan mail.

Her hosts will be the employees of the Washington branch and their friends, and will include everyone from the leading executives down to the newest store clerk. Ted Collins, her announcer-manager, and Jack Miller and his orchestra who are heard with Kate every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday on A&P's popular "Coffee-Time" program over the Columbia network at 7:30 p.m., E. D. T., will be on hand when she extends her greetings to her 3800 guests at Constitution Hall.

Much has been written about Kate Smith—blessed with a full, sweet voice, a spontaneous laugh, common sense and an utter disdain for a slender figure. But her series of mounting achievements, more recently enhanced by her work on behalf of the Red Cross for relief of the flood victims, calls for another glance at the record books.

The Kate Smith history starts 27 years ago in Greenville, Va., but her childhood was spent in Washington, D. C., where tomboy Kate outdid most of the boys on her block. She discovered her voice when she was very young (to this day she has never taken a singing lesson) and she used it mainly for her own amusement and that of the neighboring kids.

Kate soon was called to entertain at some of the affairs in Washington. Even then she had her musical triumphs, for at one of these early performances Nicholas Longworth predicted a distinguished singing career for her, and Presidents Wilson and Harding were among her appreciative auditors. At 11 she received her first salary from vaudeville engagements on "amateur night." She always has been able to move the imagination of her audience, and in war time was a youthful favorite with such ballads as "Rose of No Man's Land." Still wearing pig-tails down her back, she made frequent trips to nearby training camps to sing for doughboys. To please her family, she entered nursing school after completing her high school course. A year later she emphatically announced that she wanted to sing, and it was not long before she appeared on Broadway. There she chalked up her first triumph in "Honeymoon Lane." After a two-year run she rolled into the cast of "Flying High" where, to use the language of the time, she "wowed 'em."

Kate started broadcasting over Columbia in May, 1931, and her fame spread immediately. She didn't croon, lilt coyly, or vocalize. She "just sang" in a hearty way that won a huge and devoted audience.

Later she was booked for a week at the Capitol Theatre, where she made her metropolitan bow four years before. The one week extended to nine, and a record was marked up for that theatre. Early in the summer she was swamped with votes when the New York Daily Mirror ran a radio popularity contest which acclaimed her as "Queen of the Air." A short time later she started an engagement at the Palace Theatre. She still was at the Palace two months later, breaking records for a theatre with her 11-week run. In December, 1931, less than a year after her radio debut, she was chosen as the air's favorite woman singer of popular songs in a nationwide poll of radio editors, conducted by the New York World-Telegram. This year a similar honor was bestowed upon Kate when she was awarded first place as America's leading popular feminine singer.

The following February she made a triumphant home-coming when she appeared in Washington for a week. The Capitol turned out in full to fete a favorite daughter. Equally rousing receptions have been accorded her since then in many other large cities where she has been appearing in vaudeville.

In April, 1932, social registries flocked to New York's fashionable Central Park Casino to acclaim Kate wildly. It was her first supper club engagement in the five years since she had appeared at the College Inn in Chicago. Her first engagement in this type took place when she was a small girl in Washington, appearing at Le Paradis. Triumph in another medium soon was hers for Kate was among the headlines in the Paramount film, "The Big Broadcast."

This screen triumph soon was followed by another and greater one when she starred in the Paramount production, "Hello, Everybody," based on Fannie Hurst's original story.

Miss Alyce Rose Van De Riet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Van De Riet, 89 West 11th St. and Charles Addison Hempstead of Bridgeport, Conn., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents with Rev. John Van De Riet, uncle of the bride, officiating. Preceding the ceremony Miss Lois Ketel, accompanied by Miss Ethel Leestma of Grand Rapids, sang "Beloved, It is Morn" by Florence Ayward. The bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Ethel Leestma. Mrs. Jerry Houting was matron of honor and Miss Roberta Zibbell was bridesmaid. Jerry Houting was best man. The bride wore a gown of white lace over white satin with long sleeves and a train. She carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. WITH rhubarb up even in our more northern states it is easy to believe that spring is really here and that before very long our markets will contain much locally grown produce. It is true that spinach and asparagus are already in production as far north as New Jersey which accounts for their abundance in market and reasonable price. Strawberries too, are coming into bearing in more localities and are expected to be plentiful and cheap. California cherries and melons have begun to arrive. Butter is cheaper and eggs continue to be reasonable. Beef and veal are again the best meat values this week. Here are three menus planned for different budget levels.
